This Year's Hottest Game Is About To Go Down To Defeet!

STOMPIN'™

STOMPIN'™ lets you zap all kinds of nasty critters without ever having to touch a fire button! It's you against a whole army (literally) of well-trained vermin. Sometimes shooting is too good for 'em!

The FLOORPLAY™ controller is the most innovative game design concept in 1986. The player steps on nine lighted switches to control gameplay. It's extra rugged construction is designed to take the worst abuse. This one can put some real LIFE into your locations!

Who says a system can't be innovative?
